DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgments

1. This office action is in response to the reply filed on March 30, 2009.
2. In the reply, the applicant amended claims 1, 4, 6, 9, 16, 19 and canceled claim 15. Claims 1-14 and 16-20 are pending in the application.
3. Note: In the next reply please ensure that claim amendments comply with MPEP 714(c), especially regarding strikethrough text and status indicators (claim 16).
4. Objection to claim 6 is withdrawn due to applicant's amendment of claim 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 1 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Here applicant has amended the claims to state that the waveguide is positioned within the outer tube; however, it appears in the specification at [0037] that the waveguide 179 of the elongated member 150 extends through aperture 175 of the inner tube 170. Appropriate correction or clarification is requested.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 1-11 and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lo et al. (US 5,275,607) ("Lo"). Lo discloses:

A housing 22; an outer tube 72 having a proximal end joined to the housing and a distal end; a waveguide 105 positioned within the outer tube and having a vibrating/oscillating asymmetric blade 30 or a blade symmetric in at least one plane positioned at the distal end of the waveguide Figs. 1, 5-8, 15-16; and a lumen 34 positioned within the outer tubing having an end positioned in an overlapping relationship with the blade. The lumen is moveable distally or radially Figs. 11a-11c and provides suction or irrigation to a surgical site, see claim 15, C7 L33-43. The blade is designed to vibrate in a longitudinal mode coupled with either a transverse or torsional mode and the lumen is fixed or moveable to a position adjacent to the transverse or torsional node to facilitate suction C5 L40-55. The instrument proximal end has controls for suction and or irrigation C15 L39-46.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claims 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lo (US 5,275,607).

Lo discloses the invention as substantially claimed (see above). However, Lo does not directly disclose the blade defining a channel for irrigation or suction. The channel for irrigation or suction in Lo is within the lumen. Applicant has not disclosed that having the channel within the blade rather than a separate lumen solves any stated problem or is for any particular purpose. Moreover, it appears that the lumen of Lo, or applicant's channel in the blade would perform equally well. Accordingly, it would have been prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified Lo such that the irrigation or suction channel would be within the blade because such a modification would have been considered a mere design consideration which fails to patentably distinguish over Lo.

Response to Arguments

11. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
